Sub: Notice of Resignation as Company secretary

Respected board Member(s),

The Purpose of this Letter is to advise you about my decision to resign the position of the company secretary & compliance officer of the company.

After more than 8 months of association with the company, on a careful consideration, I have decided to resign my position effective from 22, June 2022 to look for alternate carrier opportunities.

I am proud of working with such an august board of directors over these months. The Patronage & encouragement provided by the board to me have made Lasting impact on me. The experience I earned in my role as the company secretary is very valuable to me and will serve me well in all areas of life. I wish the company continued success and thank you for your patience & guidance.

Thanking you,

Yours faithfully,
